DAY STUDENTS' FORUM REP. REQUEST KILLED

By BILL EAGAN
Forum Reporter

This week's meeting of the Student Forum heard another general debate. A motion to amend the constitution so that the day students would have their own representative was defeated following a wide-spread discussion. The debate was the high point of an otherwise normal meeting.

The contention of the non-resident students was that they need a representative in the Forum. James Farrell, speaking for the day students, maintained that this representation is necessary to promote the special interests of the non-resident student at St. Michael's.

The opponents of the measure were vocal on several points. The first was centered on the fact that this representative was unnecessary, as the day students are represented in their classes, and that this organization of day students would be in effect an area club, opening the way for representation for other campus area clubs. The other point of debate was over the constitutionality of the measure. The day students would need an organization before they could be represented, and if they were to form such an organization, they could be represented without the amending of the constitution. GLEE CLUB SINGS SUN. First Concert At Swanton

The St. Michael's College Glee Club makes its first appearance of the year Sunday, Nov. 17, at Swanton, Vt. The concert, at 8 in the Swanton Memorial Auditorium, is sponsored by Nativity Parish.

Director William Tortolano will conduct a program that will feature the chorus of 50 voices. Because of the nearness of Veterans' Day, the program will include "A Dirge for Two Veterans" by Gustav Holst, with brass ensemble.

Polyphonic motets, folk songs, music of the theater and the Prisoners' Chorus from "Fidelio" by Beethoven are on the program.

Accompanists for the Glee Club are: George A. Paulin, and Robert F. Armstrong.

A Swanton tenor, Michael L. Dugan, will be featured in the operatic excerpt and in "The Turtle Dove", arranged by Ralph Vaughan Williams.

Other soloists include: Albert F. Rose, tenor, "If I Got My Ticket, Can I Ride?" and John W. Donoghue, tenor, "Marry a Woman Uglier Than You".

Edward J. O'Brien, bass, in the Beethoven excerpt; Paul R. Doucette, bass, "La Virgin Lava Panales"; and Patrick J. Mahoney, tenor, "Mary Had a Baby," will also solo.

The Glee Club has recorded an album of its songs, several of which are to be sung at Swanton.

Joint concerts with other colleges are scheduled later in the year. First program with a girls' college will be with Trinity College, Dec. 8.

19 SENIORS CHOSEN FOR '63-4 WHO'S WHO HONOR

By KIRK R. WEIXEL
Staff Reporter

St. Michael's College today made public the names of 19 St. Michael's Seniors whose names have been submitted for the 1963-64 edition of "Who's Who among students in American Universities and Colleges."

The names of the 19, selected two weeks ago through a popular vote of the Senior Class, were offered to the college administration for approval last week.

Among the criteria employed to select the 19 were the students' scholarship, participation and leadership in extracurricular activities, and general contribution to the college community.

Those selected, their concentrations, and some of their activities are as follows:

William Batewell, French, President of the Class of '64 and

Chairman of the Student Forum Club Status Committee;

Robert Butler, English, Sports Editor of The MICHAELMAN Freshman Class Student Forum Representative;

Donald Cipriano, Biology, Grand Knight of the Knights of Columbus, Co-Chairman of '64 Winter Weekend;

William Eagan, History, Student Forum Treasurer, Treasurer of Class of '64;

Joseph Guerrera, Biology, President of the Pre-Medical Society, Student Forum Representative;

Joseph Guilfoyle, English, Student Forum Lecture Series Co-Chairman, elected to Delta Epsilon Sigma in 1962;

Michael Martin, English, Co-chairman of '63 Junior Weekend, Vice President of the Class of '64;

Richard Moughan, Education, Freshman Class President, Student Forum Election Committee Chairman.

David Rack, English, ROTC Operations and Training Officer, Arnold Air Society Commander 1962-63;

John Reilly, Business, ROTC Cadet Colonel, Student Forum Welfare Committee Chairman;

Charles Rogers, Business, Editor of The Shield;

Thomas Thayer, Business, Co-committee Chairman of Winter Weekend '63, member of the Crown and Sword Honorary Society.

Students recognized each year by the Who's Who foundation are selected from approximately 750 colleges and universities throughout the U.S.

The national organization maintains a placement service for "Who's Who" nominees who may be seeking scholarship aid or employment.

Juniors Offer Europe Tour

Tradition again has met its match and will fall aside when the Junior Class begins its annual fund-raising drive. It has been the custom in recent years to send the lucky winner off to Bermuda or the like, but this year's Junior Class is sponsoring a European trip which will allow the winner to tour eight cities without any additional expense.

This novel idea was passed at a recent class meeting after a heated debate from the floor. Frank Lytle, chairman of the drive, says it will add "considerably" to the Junior Class goals.

The trip will be along a New York - Paris route or, if more convenient, a Montreal-Paris route. Among the cities that the winners will visit are Lisbon, Paris, Amsterdam, London, Manchester, Dublin, and Shannon.

Also being sponsored by the class is a Christmas Card sale.

TICKET "SELLOUT"

"Brigadoon" is a hit before its opening. Drama Director Donald Rathgeb reports all tickets have been distributed for the three performances. Anyone not using his ticket is urged to, please, turn it in.

WSSE BACK Saint's, President's ON THE AIR Days Marked Sat.

WSSE, the campus radio station, will return to the airwaves on Wednesday Nov. 20, and for the first time in the station's history, WSSE will be received in all five dormitories, plus Alliot Hall.

In conjunction with the Student Forum's promotion of Alliot Hall, WSSE will originate its first day of broadcasting live from the main lobby of Alliot Hall.

For the past several weeks the WSSE technical staff has been installing new transmission lines connecting the station's output to buildings previously not covered. To overcome the reception problems that have plagued WSSE in previous years, new transformers have been installed in the output system to connect the campus transmission lines to WSSE's new High Fidelity transmitter.

Directing the station's activities for this year are: Michael L. John, Station Manager; J. Thomas Johnson, Program Director; Michael D. Martin, Personnel Director; John F. McDonald, Technical Director; George R. Quinn, Public Relations Director; and Mr. William Mazur, Moderator.

St. Edmund Statue

By PAT MURPHY
Staff Reporter

A joint holiday, in honor of St. Edmund, patron of the Edmundites, and of the Very Rev. Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E., president of St. Michael's College, will be observed Saturday, Nov. 16.

The day will be marked by suspension of classes and a special Mass to be offered at 10 a.m. in the college chapel.

Both the feast of St. Edmund and President's day have long been major events on the college calendar. For many years the entire student body and faculty took part in a day-long observance on this day, but, because of the numerical growth of the student body this program has become unfeasible.

Until 1914 these two events were celebrated separately. However, in that year the president of the college, Fr. Edmund Total, S.S.E., combined both events. It has remained this way since.

Saint Edmund was Archbishop of Canterbury early in the thirteenth century in the time of Pope Gregory IX and King Henry III. One of the foremost preachers of his day, the prelate, is especially remembered for his support of the crusades.

Edmund had instituted reforms in the courts, monasteries, and among the clergy in England and had fought against the king's attempt to acquire control of Church revenues.

He was en route to seek papal help in 1240 when he died in France. He was buried at Pontigny, birthplace of the Edmundites. He was canonized only six years after his death.

Very Rev. Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E.

The Very Rev. Gerald E. Dupont, S.S.E., is celebrating his fifth year as President of St. Michael's College Saturday. He is the 10th president of the college since its founding in 1904.

Formerly of Providence, R.I., Fr. Dupont is a 1933 graduate of St. Michael's and was ordained in 1939. In 1942, Fr. Dupont was awarded a Master of Arts degree in Philosophy by the University of Toronto and, a year later, received the Licentiate in Medieval Studies from the Institute of Medieval Studies in Toronto.

His Doctorate is from the University of Montreal, magna cum laude.

The President taught History and Philosophy here from 1943 until he was made Academic Dean in 1946.

Widely known as the father of "The St. Michael's Plan", Fr. Dupont is a Vice-President of the New England College Fund, Inc. Also a member of the standing committee, Institutions of Higher Learning, New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, Fr. Dupont keynoted the 1958 Vermont Conference on Education Beyond High School.

Widely published, Fr. Dupont has been active on the "Christian in Action" radio program of the National Council of Men. He has also conducted workshops on administration, curriculum, and on the Dean's Office at Catholic University.

Since becoming President, Fr. Dupont has continued to press for the academic and physical growth of the College. A new Chapel in the spring will be the latest addition since 1948.

THE WHO'S WHO NOMINEES

For each of the 19 seniors nominated this fall to appear in the 1963-64 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, the honor is a well-deserved one. For a number of other dedicated class leaders and workers, it is unfortunate that only 19 could be selected to represent St. Michael's College in the publication.

The honor is a signal one - one of the few a college student may earn which accords him recognition on the national level for his contributions to his class and to his college community.

It is of interest to note that without exception, the 19 "Who's Who" nominees this year are more than mere "joiners". While all of them have participated actively in one or more extracurricular activities, all of them have also been good students and a credit to their school in other areas of their lives while at St. Michael's. And since the 19 were selected primarily by a popular vote of the Senior Class, that class has shown commendable judgment and a genuine interest both in its own good name and that of the college.

WSSE BACK ON THE AIR

The campus radio station will return to the air this week - for good, we hope.

With its long-time technical problems all but eliminated and with a capable student staff ready to resume its operations, the station should do well when it begins its broadcasting Wednesday afternoon from the Alliot Hall lobby.

WSSE is a remarkably well-equipped station having the best in broadcasting facilities and an extensive library of recordings ranging from the raucous to the classic in musical level.

The station also has a vast potential in the area of student service as has been demonstrated in the past through its newscasts, live Student Forum broadcasts, and special, creative programming. All that the station needs now is an audience to hear what it has to offer. Hopefully, WSSE will be able to wrest that audience away from one or more of the local "rock and roll" outlets.

THE MAIL BAG

Club Budgets

To the Editor:

After reading last week's editorial, I couldn't help smiling to myself. It is a question of principle, the editorial states, whether the Student Forum should financially support or sponsor club activities of a profit-yielding nature. It goes on to affirm that the principle of sound business practice demands that the Student Forum refuse provision of capital for money-making ventures.

What is the author of this wonderful piece of prose advocating? Does he advise the adoption of business world ethics - ethics that have little regard for social justice? Is he asking the Student Forum to overload the treasury with a vanity unbecoming an organization of such high caliber - an organization whose chief purpose is the fostering of initiative among the clubs and the undergraduates?

I am not recommending to my misguided friend a liberal policy that would result in the Student Forum's perdition. But I am suggesting that principles and precedents are not the sole basis for arbitration. Neglecting consideration of the influencing and underlying circumstances is a very poor legislative policy.

I wholeheartedly agree that the integrity of the Student Forum must be maintained. But honest, objective interpretation of Student Forum policy is not based on irrelevant principles, and inconsequential precedents.

Drill Team

To the Editor:

As a member of the student body of St. Michael's College, I should like to express my appreciation to the esteemed commander of the drill team for bringing his unit back on campus.

After the alleged display of ingratitude for his efforts on the part of the student body, we should all feel truly proud that a member of the Senior Class is possessed by those qualities which enable him to swallow his pride in the face of extreme adversity for the performance of what he undoubtedly feels is his duty to this institution.

The perseverance of the commander in this matter has not only afforded us the opportunity of being able to entertain another championship team, but even more so, the members of the Class of '64 can now rest easy knowing that our diplomas can once again be raised to the level of appreciation that we have so tried to achieve in the past four years.

The Forum

The motion, when brought to a vote, was defeated by a considerable majority of the body. The non-resident students are now left with the task of forming an organization and attempting to have that organization recognized by the Forum.

Also at this week's meeting, Fr. Gokey addressed a few words to the members of the Student Forum. His remarks concerned the new rules in the Student guide pertaining to organizations and clubs and soliciting on the campus. He reminded the members of the body to be more watchful of these rules as they are new and somewhat unfamiliar.

Fr. Gokey also reminded the Forum that Nov. 16 is President's day. There will be a Mass celebrated by the President in the College Chapel and that there will be a special menu in the dining hall at the noon meal.

In connection with President's Day, Kevin St. John announced that the second floor of Alliot Hall will not be open to students Saturday from 3:00 to 6:30 P.M. The reason given was that a President's reception will be held at that time.

BUSINESS MEETING

The constitution came under consideration again this week when Tom McHale made the first reading of an amendment. This amendment would make the Graduate School Committee a permanent committee of the Student Forum. The measure will be debated at a future meeting of the Forum.

his deep appreciation for the warm welcome you accorded him at St. Michael's recently.

We enjoyed a wonderful day in the Green Mountain State, but nothing topped the reception you and your students provided. Jack Hight, who advanced the trip, told me before we arrived that "those St. Michael's boys are great. I'll be disappointed if they don't give him the greatest welcome on the tour."

They did, and we are grateful.

Sincerely,
Ivan Sinclair

LETTERS

This newspaper's columns are open to any student or faculty member who wishes to express his views on any subject. All letters to this newspaper should be delivered by Monday evening preceding publication. All letters must be signed and must be limited to 250 words or less.

The clubs had their few moments in the limelight as usual at this meeting. The Weightlifting club was granted $50 for the purchase of new equipment. The Club status committee recommended that the International Club be admitted as a class "C" club. The recommendation was accepted.

OF STUDENT INTEREST

During the meeting John Byrne of the Freshman Class moved that a committee be formed to investigate chartering a bus to St. Michael's from Holy Cross on Dec. 3. The motion was passed and Henry Amoroso was appointed as chairman of the committee. He was asked to prepare a report for the next meeting.

The report of the Student Faculty Advisory Committee by Bill Jack revealed some matters of immediate interest. The matter of the remittance of the fee for lunches missed by student teachers was looked into and dismissed as unfeasible. The reasons were that the operating costs of the dining hall are fixed and that Education students in effect volunteer for this inconvenience in electing the practice teaching course. It was noted however, that the menu for the lunches that the students carry will possibly be improved.

Also noted in this report was that Graduate Record Examination application forms are available from Dr. Pfeiffer during his office hours.

FALL FESTIVAL CONCERT SEEN MUSICAL SUCCESS

By BILL JACK
Staff Reporter

Last Saturday evening, Nov. 9, saw the arrival of the much-promoted "Fall Folk Festival" at Burlington Memorial Auditorium. The "Festival", which was sponsored by the Glee Club and the Junior Class of St. Michael's, proved to be an appealing, well balanced show in the popular folk idiom, running some three hours.

Headliners for the show were The Brandywine Singers, who proved to be apt and entertaining showmen, skillfully mixing humor with a genuine feeling for folk music. Their selections ranged from a tender, moving ballad entitled "Two Little Boys" to a bawdy, upbeat rendition of the old standard, "Praetoria", injected with a rather novel new verse. Despite the lack of a strong bass voice, the group demonstrated to an enthusiastic audience that their talent is far more versatile than their current release "Summer's Come and Gone" would indicate.

The program also included two single performers, one of whom almost stole the show. This was Bob Carey, a one-time member of The Tarriers.

Carey's easy going stage presence and masterful ability with the guitar won him immediate favor with the audience. His selections ranged from an unusual sing-a-long version of the rock n' roll hit "Walk Right In" to a straight instrumental number that left one with the false impression that he was playing a twelve string guitar instead of a six. In other selections, Carey demonstrated a vocal sensitivity reminiscent of Belafonte's. He well deserved the tremendous ovation that he received.

The third artist on the program was Diane Ruth. Miss Ruth, whose ability with the guitar was obviously limited to three chords, nonetheless overcame this deficiency with a never faltering and highly polished vocal ability. One of her selections, which is now being referred to as "The Happy Barnyard Song", truly captured the spirit of the audience, and evoked overwhelming response.

Together, The Brandywine Singers, Bob Carey, and Diane Ruth put on a lively and thoroughly entertaining concert that "left 'em standing on their blankets".

Language Lab To Move

By JOHN F. RYAN
Staff Reporter

The gloomy trek to the language lab will be made just a bit shorter by its imminent relocation in the former convent.

John Buchan, St. Michael's Business Manager, said that the increase in space afforded by the new site is the "primary reason" for the move. The laboratory in Aquinas Hall was not only too small, but the tape library from which the students draw is cramped in a corner of the room.

The office space for the faculty in the building is also much too small, he noted, and the visual aid facilities have only a temporary setup in an ordinary classroom.

By transferring the lab to the new hall, space will allow for nine more booths, bringing the total to 33. More room will be allotted for the library and office use and a special section will be set up for visual aid.

A recent survey showed that by using the library system instead of the class approach, the language lab space is used 98 percent of the time. Many colleges assign a class at a time to the language lab. By permitting use of the lab for several language classes simultaneously, St. Michael's is able to use the space to its utmost. Because the booths are used 28,200 hours out of a possible 28,800 hours in an eight hour day, the lab will soon need more space in its new location.

As for Aquinas Hall, Buchan believes that it has nearly outlived its usefulness. The construction of the new chapel will provide the necessary classroom space in Jemery.

SMC Registrar Re-elected To Head Admission Assoc.

Daniel F. MacDonald, registrar and director of admissions at St. Michael's College, will again head New England Catholic college admissions officers.

MacDonald was reelected at a meeting during the weekend convention of the New England Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers at Portland, Me. He was also renamed to the NEACRAO coordinating committee.

The St. Michael's registrar was first elected to head the Catholic group a year ago.

Since then he edited a handbook of the New England Catholic colleges for admissions officers. Copies were sent to 1500 public, private and parochial schools.

MacDonald said that one of the big problems in discussions is the large jump in applications expected this year and accelerating

JR. WEEKEND THEME IS NORSE VALHALLA

Heavy red beards, lusty shouts and droughts of mead will stir throughout the musty air at this year's Junior Weekend. The heaven of viking warriors downed in battle, "Valhalla", is this year's weekend theme.

"Ferociously guarded" by three stout Norsemen, Miss Vermont, Melissa Hetzel, heralded the glory of the hardy Vikings in her appearance at the Fall Folk Festival Saturday evening. Reading a proclamation for the Junior Class, she reminisced again about the spirit of the times and the grandeur and spice the name suggests.

For those who attend, the vigor of a millenium past will be ushered anew in the sea-faring spirit. Valhalla will set the stage for P-Day, for which it is especially adaptable.

"Imagination and color" are what we need and the theme certainly gives us that, says Ron LeClerc, the weekend co-chairman.

Valhalla was chosen because it "goes with the surroundings", added the other chairman, Tom Edwards. They both agreed that it "goes" with the Junior Class.

Time Issues P.C. Report

NEW YORK, Nov. 4 -- A comprehensive report on the Peace Corps is being issued by Time this week in the form of a special insert bound into copies of the current issue of the magazine.

Prepared in primer question and answer form, the report provides specific information on eligibility requirements, testing and training, how and where to apply, salaries and allowances, etc. For example, in answer to the question on whether a college degree is necessary, the report says: "A degree may be desirable, but it is by no means required for many Peace Corps projects. Fully a third of all volunteers now at work have not completed college." But, the report cautions: "If you intend to finish college, the Peace Corps strongly urges you to do so before volunteering, rather than attempt to get a 'leave of absence' before you graduate."

Copies of the report are available in quantity to students and educators, $1.00 a hundred. Write to Peace Corps/Time College Report, Radio City Box 100, New York, N.Y. 10019.

On Campus with Max Shulman

(Author of "Rally Round the Flag, Boys!" and "Barefoot Boy With Cheek.")

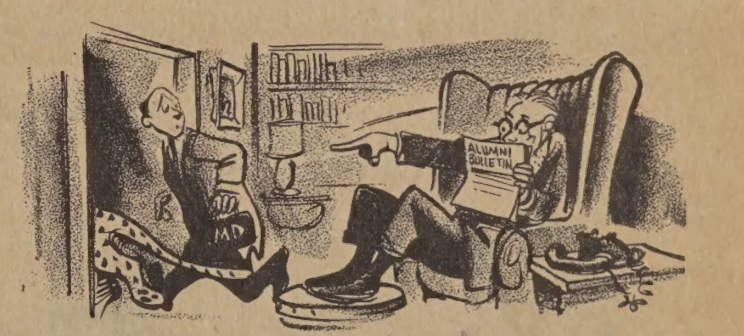

SHOULD AULD ACQUAINTANCE AND JAZZ LIKE THAT

I am now an elderly gentleman, full of years and aches, but my thoughts keep ever turning to my undergraduate days. This is called "arrested development."

But I cannot stop the healing tide of nostalgia that washes over me as I recall those golden campus days, those ivy-covered buildings (actually, at my college, there was only ivy; no bricks), those pulse-tingling lectures on John Dryden and Cotton Mather, the many friends I made, the many deans I bit.

I know some of you are already dreading the day when you graduate and lose touch with all your merry classmates. It is my pleasant task today to assure you that it need not be so; all you have to do is join the Alumni Association and every year you will receive a bright, newsy, chatty bulletin, chock-full of tidings about your old buddies.

Oh, what a red-letter day it is at my house, the day the Alumni Bulletin arrives! I cancel all my engagements, take the phone off the hook, dismiss my resident osteopath, put the cheetah outside, and settle down for an evening of pure pleasure with the Bulletin and (need I add?) a good supply of Marlboro Cigarettes.

Whenever I am having fun, a Marlboro makes the fun even more fun. That filter, that flavor, that yielding soft pack, that firm Flip Top box, never fails to heighten my pleasure whether I am playing Double Canfield or watching the radio or knitting an afghan or enjoying any other diverting pursuit you might name—except, of course, spear fishing. But then, how much spear fishing does one do in Clovis, New Mexico, where I live?

But I digress. Let us return to my Alumni Bulletin and the fascinating news about my old friends and classmates. I quote from the current issue:

"Well, fellow alums, it certainly has been a wing-dinger of a year for us old grads! Remember Mildred Cheddar and Harry Camembert, those crazy kids who always held hands in Econ II? Well, they're married now and living in Clovis, New Mexico, where Harry rents spear-fishing equipment, and Mildred has just given birth to a lovely 28-pound daughter, her second in four months. Nice going, Mildred and Harry!

"Remember Jethro Brie, the man we voted most likely to succeed? Well, old Jethro is still gathering laurels! Last week he was voted 'Motorman of the Year' by his fellow workers in the Duluth streetcar system. 'I owe it all to my brakeman,' said Jethro in a characteristically modest acceptance speech. Same old Jethro!

"Probably the most glamorous time had by any of us old alums was had by Francis Macomber last year. He went on a big game hunting safari all the way to Africa! We received many interesting post cards from Francis until he was, alas, accidentally shot and killed by his wife and white hunter. Tough luck, Francis!

"Wilametta 'Deadeye' Macomber, widow of the late beloved Francis Macomber, was married yesterday to Fred 'Sureshot' Sigafos, white hunter, in a simple double-ring ceremony in Nairobi. Many happy returns, Wilametta and Fred!

"Well, alums, that just about wraps it up for this year. Buy bonds!"

Old grads, new grads, undergrads, and non-grads all agree: that good Richmond tobacco recipe, that clean Selectrate filter, have turned all fifty states of the Union into Marlboro Country. Won't you join the throng?

WSSE Marks 10 Years On The Air

Started With Little But Growth Is Fast

By MICHAEL L. JOHN and
GEORGE R. QUINN

Ten years ago, WSSE went on the air for the first time in a small corner of the original Austin Hall with an old record changer, a homemade amplifier, and a lot of pioneer spirit. Since then, new studios have been built, and modern equipment installed, but the spirit remains unchanged.

It all began in October, 1953, when Charles Eldridge laid the groundwork for a campus radio station. In December the dream was realized when the student council recognized and financed the birth of WSSE.

Four months later, the students at St. Michael's College were able, for the first time, to turn on their radios and hear: "You are tuned to WSSE, the Radio Voice of St. Michael's College".

With the purchase of more equipment in the Fall of 1954, WSSE was able to air its first "remote" broadcast, a play by play of a Golden Gloves match from Burlington's Memorial Auditorium. Also at this time, girls from Trinity College were given their own daily program on WSSE. These things were accomplished under the guiding hand of the station's first moderator, Rev. Lorenzo D'Agostino.

TRAINING GROUND

In February of 1955, the value of WSSE as a training ground was realized when radio station WDOT of Burlington invited the staff of WSSE to operate its station on alternate Sundays.

During the following year, the faculty began to see the usefulness of WSSE as a co-curricular activity when Dr. Henry G. Fairbanks worked with WSSE staff members to broadcast a series of programs to augment the new Humanities courses. Rev. James R. Coombs became the new moderator and WSSE extended its operation by joining the College Radio Network with WRUV of the University of Vermont.

OLD AND NEW - Typical of the professional equipment owned and operated by WSSE are these two turntables (foreground) which feature hydraulically balanced tone arms and silent operation. Old style machine is contrasted in background. (Hand belongs to Technical Director, John MacDonald.)

During the academic year of 1958-59, the station advanced technically with the purchase of a professional tape deck. Staff members were doing regular news broadcasts for WJOY in Burlington. In February, the sports staff traveled over 300 miles to New York City to broadcast live basketball games from Adelphi College and the New York Athletic Club.

The year 1960 was a big one in the progress of WSSE. Vacating the soon to be demolished (old) Austin Hall, WSSE moved into brand new and fully equipped studios in "Miketown", its present location. Making full use of its new control room, sound-proofed and carpeted studios, spacious record rooms and increased office space, WSSE revamped its programming.

New shows such as Counterpoint, Masterworks from France and Call from London further rounded out the programming of the station. In conjunction with the Student Council, WSSE helped to raise money for the Building Fund by running a "Radio-thon".

In the fall of 1961, WSSE prepared for its most extensive project to date, a television program. For on Dec. 11, 1961, in conjunction with St. Michael's Department of English for Foreign Students, WSSE presented on WCAX-TV "Christmas Around the World", a program featuring students from South Africa to Japan.

Meanwhile on WCAX Radio, the staff of WSSE produced "Time Out", a weekly series designed to introduce the Burlington listening audience to St. Michael's College. Informative programs such as "A Day in the Life of a Student Teacher" and "Our Student Forum" served to elucidate modern college life to interested listeners.

The following year WSSE, as "Campus Information Radio," stressed service to the student body with features such as "Bulletin Board of the Air" and a daily intercollegiate campus news round-up.

During the past two years the station has been plagued with a variety of technical problems, chief of these being its inability to cover both Joyce and Founders Halls.

Now, with the installation of new transmission lines to the two dormitories, the station is returning to the air on a 4 p.m. through 11 p.m. broadcast schedule.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANIES SALUTE: PETE BERTSCHMANN

In the summer of 1961, Pete Bertschmann (B.A., 1956) completed his Navy tour and joined New England Telephone's Boston Sales Department. There, he helped business customers solve their communications problems. So capably, in fact, that when ten applicants were screened for a supervisory job, Pete won the promotion.

In his new capacity Pete handled special sales studies, wrote speeches, and, among other achievements, contributed some valuable suggestions for improving Mobile Phone Service. All this brought promotion to his current position as a supervisor of the Telephone Sales Program with responsibility for training new employees.

Pete Bertschmann, like many young men, is impatient to make things happen for his company and himself. There are few places where such restlessness is more welcomed or rewarded than in the fast-growing telephone business.

Romp Continues In Ducks

By BOB KOSMIDEK

In the Duckpin loop, the Seniors continued winning by trouncing the Juniors 4-0. Leading them was Wil Daignault with high three of 340, with Rich Moyer rolling the high single of 127.

The Freshmen turned the tables on the Sophomores in three closely-contested strings by a score of 3-1. Bill Stafford led the Frosh with a high single of 126 and high three of 319. John Larensen led a game effort for the Sophs with the high string of the night, 148.

It doesn't seem as if any team is going to unseat the Seniors from first place. The league is shaping up as a battle for second place. With a little more experience, the Frosh could harass the upperclass teams.

Last week, a spirited Frosh squad suprised the Seniors by taking a game from them. A significant fact is that the Seniors hadn't lost a single point in two years.

Seniors Have Early Int' class Race Lead

With only one-fourth of the academic year history, the Senior Class is making a shambles of the interclass trophy race, according to Mike Martin, Student Forum Interclass Activities Chairman.

The Class of '64 has captured the honors the past two years and a repeat this year would be an unprecedented achievement. The Seniors now have twice as many points as do the Juniors, their closest competitors.

The leaders, after a bitter struggle with the Class of '65, managed to nail down their third consecutive football championship. After dropping their initial contest, Moughan, Batewell and Co. fought back for six straight victories including a decisive play-off contest, 19-0.

On Sunday, Oct. 13, the Class of '64 track team turned back a determined Freshman squad and scored its third triumph in as many years. With Jack Corrigan once again leading the way with three first places, the Senior grabbed five victories in the eight events.

The blood drawing in mid-October, an over-all success according to the local Red Cross director, saw the Seniors once again triumph, donating 76 pts. with 39% of the class participating. Although the Freshmen contributed more blood their participation percentage was lower.

Now in progress are the bowling leagues and the writing competition as well as the basketball season which began on Nov. 11. The Freshmen are presently leading in kingpin while the Seniors have a substantial edge in the ducks.

The latest point tally for the four classes is: Seniors, 75 pts.; Juniors, 37.5 pts.; Freshmen, 32.5 pts.; and Sophomores, 10 pts.

STAFF OPENINGS

THE MICHAELMAN has immediate openings on its reportorial staff for Sophomores. Anyone of the Class of '66 interested in reporting or in learning how to do same is invited to see either Paul Simmons at THE MICHAELMAN office, 107 Alliot Hall, or Pat Ryan, at 251 Founders Hall.

Nine Congo Students In Eng. Course

By MICHAEL DUDLEY
Foreign Students' Reporter

In St. Michael's Foreign Student English Department there are now nine students from the Republic of Congo (Brazzaville) formerly the French Congo.

They are studying under the Agency for International Development (AID) plan. It is a joint scholarship plan between the U.S. and the Congo. The students, Jean-Marie Adoua, Joseph Babindamana, Germain Bindika, Martin Elenga, Celestin Ganga, David Mayilou, and Philippe Singou are all from the city of Brazzaville.

In preparation for teaching English in their native country, they have studied at Georgetown University and the University of Michigan. They will be studying the advnaced course in English at St. Michael's for approximately six months.

"We Will Go On" Is Message As Brigadoon Cast Polishes

By RONALD A. SUDOL
Drama Reporter

There is a notice posted backstage at the Playhouse where "Brigadoon" is now in rehearsal. It says: "This show still needs much work, but we will go on -- any letdown in energy could change this." It is signed "D.A. R."

Thus admonished, the cast of "Brigadoon" has been rehearsing under the supervision of Mr. Donald A. Rathgeb (alias D.A. R.) every night of the week. We dropped in at a "call" last week and were able to watch Mr. Rathgeb directing two of the principals, John Durkin and Dick Burtling. Amid separate rehearsals in other rooms and various pieces of scenery and props laying around, the rehearsal went something like this:

Durkin: "I've been here just one day, and I think I'll

Bertling: "Here?" (gesturing).

Rathgeb: "No, like this: Here?" (gesturing differently).

Bert: "Here?" (gesturing).

Rath: "No. Here?" (gesturing again).

Bert: "Here?" (gesturing correctly).

Rath: "Yes."

Durk: "Yes, Jeff, because I believe in it."

Rath: "No. Because I believe in it."

Durk: "Yes, Jeff, because I believe in it."

Freshmen, Sophomores and Juniors interested in sports-writing for The MICHAELMAN should contact either Bob Butler, J309, or Mike Burns, J265.

On it went for several hours.

On Wednesday, a professional bagpipe player arrived to add a particularly Scottish flavor to the orchestrations. All of the diverse elements of the musical, including a twelve piece orchestra directed by Mr. William Tortolano, were combined when the first dress rehearsal was held last week.

Tickets for "Brigadoon" were sold out almost immediately after they became available so that the cast is now committed. No one will know how well it will go until next Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, but it was clear from the rehearsals that there was a sense of purpose as well as an "energy output" on the part of the cast.

On Mr. Rathgeb's part there is a remarkable professionalism. He is a director who never shouts but who always directs calmly and quietly and clearly and well. His tutelege, however, is not enough to make the show successful. How well the cast interprets the Lerner and Loewe musical will be discussed in these columns one week hence.

INT'CLASS BASKETBALL STARTS; SOPHS, SENIORS WIN

From The Stands

By BOB BUTLER

Elsewhere on this page is printed a copy of the 1963-64 varsity basketball schedule and, for one not acquainted with the rumors which have circulated since last April, there are a few surprises. In addition to the usual State Series opponents and the equally familiar traditional rivals, is the inclusion of such new and renewed names as Loyola of Baltimore, Delaware, Albright, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Massachusetts. Continuing a rivalry which was resumed last year is the December 3 encounter with Holy Cross.

Clearly, this slate is the toughest faced by the Knights in at least four years. Heavy underdog roles will be in order for SMC in at least three of these games. Rhode Island is reputed to have another big and talented unit and will be in serious competition for the Yankee Conference crown which they almost won last year. Then too, Massachusetts is loaded with returning stars, including two-time All Yankee Conference Selection Roger Twitchell, and is expected to make a strong effort to regain the Conference crown they won two years ago.

Holy Cross, which by now has learned the dangers of overconfidence when playing schools supposedly its inferiors, will be in a much better frame of mind for this year's game. They will also benefit by personnel acquired from an incoming group of talented Sophomores.

But just as this is an exceptionally rigorous schedule, so too is the '64-'65 edition of the Knights an exceptionally gifted group which should benefit from the pressure put upon it by such a challenging host of games.

Returning starters Richi Tarrant, Ed Kryger, and Ed McDonnell plus Marty King and Bill Cummins, both of whom are well tested in varsity competition, should give SMC a solid nucleus of experienced hands.

The addition of Vinnie Kazalonis and Phil Taylor to this year's forces will also be a big help in fielding an outstanding team. Though the sizable gaps left by the graduated Fred Cerrato and Walt Baumann will be hard to fill, Taylor and Kazalonis both have the ability to do so.

The frontcourt looks especially strong. Tarrant, who burned the nets at a 17.3 point clip last year, is surprisingly efficient under the boards and is the thinking type of ballplayer, who performs a great many valuable functions which unfortunately can't be translated into statistics. Kryger possesses an accurate corner jump shot as well as the great ability to effectively drive the baseline - he's also one of the smartest, most spirited rebounders on the team.

Kazalonis, who does just about everything well, operates efficiently from either a corner or wing position and, despite his lack of size, does a fine job of clearing the boards. His quick hands and good body control make him a feared man on defense.

Jim Dooley, who was ineligible last year, is another frontcourt possibility. Lacking finesse, he makes up for it with size and desire and should offer some real board strength.

Experienced guards are McDonnell, King, and Cummins. A 10.9 point per game man last year while serving in an inter-

By JOE MAUCERI

The 1963-64 Interclass Basketball League began play on Monday night, Nov. 11, when a strong Senior team overpowered a game junior quintet 56-42.

The contest was close for the first ten minutes, but then the Senior offense started clicking and at the half the last-year men were up by 13 points. Play slowed down a bit in the second half and the much larger court at Ethan Allen began to take its toll. There were a lot of tired ball players at the end of the game.

The Seniors were led offensively by Ed Goutas, with 20 points. He played a strong game off the boards as well as scoring effectively from in close. Rolie Baikal, fresh out of retirement, threw in 15. Chuck Rogers had 12 members and Dick Endrelunas accounted for 10 points.

The Juniors' top scorers were Bob Etherson with 12 and Mike Hadlock with 8. Perry Goodrow was their mainstay off the boards.

In the second game of the season a hustling Soph squad poured it on against a weaker Frosh team, winning 47-30. The Sophs' scoring was balanced very well with Bill Sullivan hooping

10 points and Dan Keefe and Kevin Gokey chipping in 6 apiece. The Frosh, down at the first quarter 18-2, came on to play the Sophs on even terms for the remainder of the game, but the curly Soph lead was too much to overcome.

O'Connell led the first year men in scoring with 11 points and played a fine board game as well.

In Thursday night's contest the Juniors trounced the Frosh again 45-35, but the Frosh, under the tutelage of Bob Kryger, show enough to surprise everyone in a few games this year.

The winner of the Interclass League this year will be determined by total won-lost record and not by first and second half championships as in previous years.

The Standings thus far:

Team	Won	Lost
Freshmen	0	2

Frosh Continue To Dominate Kingpin Loop

By JACK BURKE

Last Monday night the Seniors, led by Stan Buczak with a 552 series and a 209 high single, took three points from the Sophs while losing one.

The one that they lost was by a single pin and was costly as they could have picked up a point on the surging Frosh, who at the present time have an excellent 18-2 record. The Seniors are 15-5.

George Vogler chipped in with a 501 series for the Seniors with a high game of 194. Rip Matulis was high man for the Sophs with a series of 564 with high games of 200 and 201.

The Juniors with only two of last year's squad returning are having a tough time putting together a winning combination. They dropped three points to the Frosh last night. Captain Bob Hladik was high man for them with a 546 series and a high single for the night of 220. Hladik has just recently begun to show the form which he exhibited last year when he finished second in the high average department with a 176. Joe Zadrosny had a 508 for the 3rd year men in their losing effort.

The Frosh who appear to be the team to beat this year, were led as usual, by team Captain Vic Puia with a fine 588 series with high games of 202 and 200. Puia was followed by teammates Jack Marr with a 537 series and Ray Archacki with a 522 series.

The Sophs, having a problem getting members of their class to participate in interclass activities, have had a full team only two weeks out of the five weeks of the bowling season.

Team Captain Ron Chiarello reports that the team needs bowlers and that any who think they are qualified should contact him as soon as possible.
